

Women's Organizations

The current events and literature department of the Woman's club held the first meeting of the season this afternoon in the club rooms. Mrs. A. C. Schuster was in charge of the program.

The Shakers Reading club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. C. Ellison, in Highland Park.

The regular meeting of the Sunshine society was held Monday at 8 o'clock in the Y. W. C. rooms. Mrs. Wm. H. F. Judd, the president, in the chair.

There was a large attendance of members and their friends and much interest was manifested in the splendid reports made by the different officers and special committees.

A number of interesting communications were read from Mrs. Cynthia Westover Aiden, president general of the International Sunshine society, and others, among which was one from Mrs. Aiden, thanking the El Paso branch in most cordial terms for a donation of $25 to be applied toward the mortgage fund which she is exerting such great effort to raise; also one from Miss H. Grace Franklin, expressing appreciation of the receipt of $5 towards defraying the hospital expenses of a poor woman who was severely injured in an accident, and another letter from New York acknowledging receipt of $5 to aid in buying braces for Effie Sartor, a Texas girl and cripple, now under the care of the Sunshine society in that city.

As usual, the report from the Sunshine day nursery was most encouraging. The attendance of children is increasing to such an extent that the question of providing the nation with sufficient rompers was discussed before the meeting and an appeal made to all mothers to render what assistance they could to solve the problem.

The lookout committee reported many visits made and flowers sent to sick people and shut-ins, as also many magazines and articles of clothing distributed.

The poor farm committee reported the distribution of reading matter and games to the unfortunate inmates.

The Sunshine Workers reported the first meeting of the season, with Mrs. G. H. Richardson, on Montezuma street. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. H. T. Safford, 1111 East Rio Grande street, on Friday, October 27, the day having been postponed from Friday, October 26, on account of the Jubilee Celebration.

Notice was given that the emergency circle would meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Judd, 211 Union avenue, on Monday, October 22.

After the regular business had been disposed of, a delightful program was rendered, as follows: Piano solo by Miss Beeson; vocal duet by Misses Anderson and Amy Schütz; and two readings by Mrs. C. O. Rucker, viz., "Outcasted" and "When the Felt is Gone."

After the adjournment of the regular meeting a special meeting of the executive board was held. Most of the members were present and important business of the society was dispatched.

The next regular meeting of the society will be held in the Y. W. C. rooms on the third Monday in November.

The Silent Twelve club was very pleasantly entertained last week at the home of Mrs. E. F. Croom. A cut glass dish and a handsome hand painted plate, the work of the hostess, were given as prizes. Only club members were present.

Five new members have been received in the Woman's club, who are: Messrs. Eudine Payne, C. E. Baster, E. H. Hendricks, J. F. Byrster and Miss Esther Darbyshire.

Committees in charge of the float to be decorated by the Woman's club for the Statehood Jubilee parade, are very busy, and all preparations are well under way.

The Thursday night lecture at the Carnegie library is deferred until next week, on account of parade.

The Royal Neighbors will have a social Wednesday evening in the E. of P. hall in the Calhoun building. This will be the last social gathering in their new quarters.

The Fortnight club will be entertained this week at the home of Miss Walsh, 14 North Stanton street.

A reception will be given Thursday evening to the delegates who attended the grand chapter of C. Eastern Star at Houston. The reception will follow the regular meeting of the lodge and the delegates who attended the meeting will make their report.

Mrs. W. A. Doolittle was the official delegate from the El Paso chapter and she was accompanied by Miss Vivian Shea, Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. J. E. Walker and Dr. Mattie L. Hill. Dr. Hill was selected associate and Mrs. E. P. Cochran, of Dallas, who is well known in Masonic circles here, was elected associate grand patron.

JUBILEE VISITORS.

Just a reminder that when you get tired and thirsty we want you to visit our fountain. Delicious drinks and loaves are served promptly. Then too, our location, right at the center of El Paso and opposite the Transfer Station, makes this a convenient place for you to make appointments to meet your friends. Come in and see us. If we already know you, we will be glad to see you again. If we don't, we will be glad to make your acquaintance. Scott White & Co., Mills Building.

Cards

Mrs. Lamar Davis was the hostess for the Tuesday Bridge Club yesterday afternoon, at her home on Olive street.

Mrs. Frank Coles entertained the Wednesday club this afternoon.

Mrs. C. E. Kelly was the hostess for the Married Woman's Wednesday Bridge club.

Miss Loretta Brick will entertain the Thursday Bridge club tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Rita Greenbaum, of San Francisco, was the honor guest at a very enjoyable whist party, given by her aunt, Mrs. A. A. Kille.

Following the games, refreshments were served by the hostess. Those enjoying the affair were: Misses Rita Greenbaum, Jennie Blumenthal, Della Moya, Ethel Levy, Estelle Levy, Rose Hill, Rose Aronstein, Harriet Schwartz, Stella Goodman, Bertha Goldstein, Irma Jacobson, Messrs. A. Schatz, Carl Blumenthal, Charles Schütz, Walter Kohlberg, E. Herbert Kohlberg, Lewis Greenbaum, Herman Strauss, Mayer Bear, Maurice Schwartz, Dave Kline, Max Kline, Kaufman, Sidney Ullman, Joe Wolf, Sidney Mayer, Lawrence Calisher.

Miss Amy Schütz very charmingly entertained a number of her friends on Saturday afternoon at bridge.

Miss Marian Campbell, who made top score, was awarded the first prize, and Miss Justine Newburgh received the consolation prize.

The house was decorated throughout with dahlias, and the dainty two course luncheon was served from the card tables. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Miss Monica Gallagher.

The guest list included: Misses Sara Cobb, Marian Campbell, Monica Gallagher, Chrysta Hogarth, Flora Campbell, Jennie Blumenthal, Annie and Mary Anderson, Justine Newburgh, Jennie Anderson; Mesdames T. M. Quebedeaux, Rowland Gilchrist, LeVeaux, William Barnes, S. A. Vaughn, William Pollett, Leo Gale.

With bridge as the medium of amusement, Mrs. D. C. Booth entertained Saturday afternoon.

The house was most attractive with its adornment of red carnations and ferns, and the electric lights, shielded with red shades, shed a soft glow over the scene.

Mrs. L. J. Gilchrist received the favor for highest score, and Mrs. William McKenna won the second prize, while the consolation went to Mrs. A. H. Fullan.

The salad course, followed by ices and cake, was served from the small tables. Those enjoying the hospitality of the occasion were: Mesdames J. L. Sweetney, C. E. Kelly, Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Eyster, C. M. Hendricks, J. E. Bowen, Paul Liso, J. B. DuBois, L. J. Gilchrist, A. H. Fullan, T. F. Kline, M. Ullman, McKenna, F. W. McConnell; Misses Myra Prater, Emma Smith.

Mrs. Walter A. Williams entertained very pleasantly with a birthday party complimentary to her sister, Miss Jessie Turner, who is spending the winter in El Paso from her home in Oklahoma.

The affair took place last Thursday evening. Pitch was the feature of the evening's entertainment, affording much amusement to the guests.

A pleasing musical program was also carried out, vocal and instrumental solos being rendered by Misses Florence Barnes, Mrs. Nell Howard, Miss Jessie Turner and Chas. Leming. Mrs. Ernest Johnson gave up reading in her usual charming manner. Miss Turner was the recipient of a number of pretty gifts from her friends. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches and coffee were served to the guests, who were: Misses Estelle Hille, Vera Breguney, Chas. McKenna, Florence Barnes, Jessie Turner, Messrs. Guy Mercer, Thatcher Beachem, Chas. Leming, Hadley Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Kuhn, Howard, W. A. Williams.

School Notes

—Mrs. H. B. McDowell, 521 West Main street, will entertain a birthday party for her daughter, Miss Jessie Turner, on Thursday evening, October 13, 1911.

The attendance at the San Jacinto school since the opening of school has been unusually good, both among the teachers and the pupils.

The football team of the San Jacinto certainly shows its excellent training, in that it has won in the games played with the E. P. H. S. Mesa and Lamsa.

Church Affairs

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church held a very interesting meeting yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. An excellent program was given under the direction of Mrs. E. W. Parker, with "The Conservation of Our National Ideals" as the subject for the afternoon.

The Philathea and Iserana classes of the First Baptist church were delightfully entertained on Friday evening by Rev. J. D. Ray and wife at their home on Magoffin.

The first congregational church held a meeting at the Grand hotel Monday evening. New members were proposed, who were ready to enter the church, and a presentation was made to Mrs. Chas. Zahn, who is about to leave the city to take up her residence in Mexico.

CONGREGATIONAL SAYS FAREWELL TO PASTOR

Rev. Caspar Wright Leaves For San Antonio to Await Appointment

Rev. Caspar S. Wright bade farewell to his congregation at Trinity Methodist church Tuesday night and accompanied by Mrs. Wright and their son Walker, will leave for San Antonio, Tex., tonight. They will spend four weeks in that city pending the appointment of Dr. Wright to a new charge by the North Texas Conference.

of the Methodist church, which meets at Gainesville, Tex., November 15.

When Dr. Wright arrived in El Paso on July 17, 1908, E. T. Moore welcomed him to Trinity parish, and it was Moore who delivered the farewell address Tuesday night.

The program, which was held in the parlors of the church, consisted of: Hymn, "Something for Jesus"—By the congregation.

Farewell address and presentation of resolutions adopted by the board of stewards—E. T. Moore.

Vocal solos, "The Captive Maid Is Mute" and "Wearing Away"—Mrs. W. D. Howe.

Solo, "Say Not Goodbye"—Mrs. W. W. Evans.

Prayer talk by Rev. Caspar S. Wright.

Hymn, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again"—By the congregation.

J. C. Ballard, chairman of the board of stewards, presided.

Dr. Wright came to El Paso from Scraper, Missouri, church, St. Louis, Mo., July 17, 1908. He was admitted to the ministry on trial at Madison, Mo., in November, 1902, was ordained deacon by Bishop A. G. Haygood, at Rome, Ga., in November, 1904, and was ordained elder by bishop A. W. Wilson, at Dalton, Ga., in 1906.

From 1906 to 1908 he was chaplain of the Georgia state house of representatives and was later stationed at the Broadway church, Augusta, Ga.
